

LAMQG General Meeting Minutes
October 14, 2019

Held at: St. Andrew's Lutheran Church

10th Anniversary Meeting

Next meeting: November 11th at 7:30 at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church

Joann's Presented the guild with a $4000 donation. Craig, the manager for the Torrance store was present to announce it.

Annual dues are due. $65/year

Final payment for the retreat is due

It was announced that Artful Improv Permission to play would be held on Friday the 18th at St. Andrew's as well. $85. Hosted by Westside quilters

Ann Charity quilt update:

Christmas eve: need 40 quilts

Currently she has 3 twin quilts and needs 10. Has 9 kid quilts, needs 17

Betsy and Ann Richardson both donated a quilt at the meeting.

Rachel announced that she would be having a sewing day at her house and there is room for one more if anyone is interested in finishing up some charity quilts. They are using a quilt as you go method.

Edna's stray Joann's block was made into a twin sized quilt.

Charity quilt challenge for quiltcon. Tess handed out the fabric for the text block. Blocks due by the December meeting.

Super Bee's- open to new members. Need sign-ups for Jan/June. Current block can be found on the MQG website. The other bee was working on an improv piece for Miriam's house.

Memory Lane: Remembering the beginnings of the LAMQG by Alissa Height Carlton. Started 10 years ago at a store in Silverlake called Home Ec. Alissa and Latifah were co-founders. Alissa used to teach quilting classes there. Slide show was shown of guild pics.

Show and tell.