

LAMQG General Meeting 11/13/20

Kathy Doughty visited from her shop, Material Obsession, outside Sydney, Australia
She showed us around her shop and classroom, highlighting various fabric lines and patters, as well as her own quilts

She has offered a variety of classes to the group; board will poll membership on which class to run

Betty and Yvonne provided information about Retreat and updating your Zoom version for breakout rooms during Retreat

Edie showed the completed Community Outreach quilt for QuiltCon

Ann will let us know if she needs anymore quilts for Miriam's House; there will be a livestream on Christmas Eve when the residents receive their quilts

Bees are largely social at this point, with people working on their own projects

Social Sews are continuing to be popular

Annual dues are really really due, as we have to pay the MQG; Venmo (2lamqgtreasurer), Zelle (treasurer@lamqg.org), Paypal (e-mail treasurer@lamqg.org)

Jacquie Gering class on "How Do I Quilt This" on December 5, 9-12 has three spots available; e-mail treasurer@lamqg.org; can take the class and do Social Sew in the afternoon

Tara Faughnan coming January 30, 2021; details to follow via e-mail; options are "Creating Color Palettes" and "Color Interaction"

Kathy Doughty class: applique or other? Poll during meeting indicates most people want an applique class

Challenges: Color of the Year, Tea Towel Challenge (Celebrating—in any and all forms)

Show and Tell had, as usual, some amazing stuff!

Greg thanked board members for retreat preparations before turning meeting over to Retreat
